This letter is the result of discussions among []
[] and myself concerning the sterility
of pertinent reference information in our local area.
Your remarks to me last week triggered a sore spot in that it is extremely difficult for us to keep abreast of technical documents in the fields of interest.

As a consequence, I should like to raise a flag in order that this lonely outpost be put on distribution of suitable documents. We shall maintain availability of same at [] to assure access for the concerned parties.

Very truly yours,

Dick
